Prospectus for the Fourth Volume.

HE reception which each succeeding volume of the Columbian Lady's and Gentleman's Magazine has met with, has been so flattering, that No paper discontinued until all arrearages are the publisher's greeting to his patrons at the commencement of another volume, differs from former salutations, only in the fervency of his acknowledgments of their favors. His is, indeed, a most grateful task, a most agreeable duty. He has to speak of success, and of success alone. From its establishment, in January, 1844, the Columbian ted from an advertising bill when it amounts to Magazine has been favored with patronage perhaps periodical. Its carliest numbers obtained for it a high reputation, and it has known no reverses, but under a constantly increasing patronage, it has reached a proud position, which it will be the publisher's aim to retain. It is now demonstrated that New York can and will sustain a well-conducted magazine of general literature. The publisher believes that he rightly estimates the causes of the popularity which his magazine has reached. He did not attempt its establishment without first counting the cost, and he confidently appeals to the former volumes as evidence, that in to the publisher's province he has not been chary ville, Louisiana, leaving no heirs of his body in ed to the Columbian. This course he will continue heirs. It is supposed that Mr. Jones was a native real merit by those of any other magazine. Our
